It's time to write to Santa!

Remember to write to Santa and post your letter early, so Santa has plenty of time to read it.

Santa has a new postcode this year, and the address is:

Santa
NORTH POLE 9999

And always put your return address on the back of the envelope so Santa can send you a reply!

Welcome!

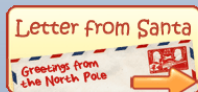

Santa Claus here and welcome to SantaClaus.net. I can't believe that Christmas will be here again so soon. I have never seen Rudolph's nose so bright but I bet you are even more excited than Rudolph. Well you should be because this is going to be the best Christmas yet!

We've added some new stuff to SantaClaus.net this year. Make sure to check to see if you are on my Good List, play some of my new games and put your name on my mailing list before you leave.

Lots of Reindeer hugs,
Santa Claus

children worldwide on Santa's Good List

Are YOU on Santa's Good List?

Welcome to SantasGoodList.org, the official publisher of Santa's Good List. Because making Santa's coveted Good List is so important, for the first time ever, Santa has decided to publish it online! There's only one rule... you have to be on the list yourself in order to take a peak inside...

Thanks to the new North Pole Network you can now chat directly with one of Santa's elves at the North Pole below. They will ask you a few questions to verify that your name is on the list and if so, give you a key granting you access to see for yourself! So, are you ready to find out if YOU are on Santa's Good List?

Santa's Good List has been around for centuries as each year children worldwide work to get their name placed on this coveted list. However, until now, it has been impossible to know exactly how you were doing in your efforts.

Santa Claus has decided to publish his magical good list for the very first time! As you can see above, Santa's Good List is constantly changing so publishing a printed version would be impossible. Thanks to the internet you can now see, at any time, if your hard work to make Santa's Nice List has been worth the effort! Chat with an elf above right now to verify whether or not you are on Santa's Official Good List.

SANTAS working in shopping centres across Australia have been banned from bellowing "ho ho ho" because it might frighten children.

Recruitment firm Westaff, which supplies hundreds of Santas around the country, yesterday confirmed the edict.

Westaff national operations manager Glen Jansz said the company's Santas had been urged to tone down their use of the "ho, ho, ho" phrase.

"The reason behind that is we find that in some cases the little kids can get a little bit scared of the deep 'ho, ho, hos' and we ask them to be mindful of keeping their voices to a lower level," he said.

"And kids are probably more inclined to understand 'ha, ha, ha', than 'ho, ho, ho'."

Thirty trainees at a recent Santa course were instructed to replace the traditional Christmas greeting with "ha ha ha"
